

Issues in Education Survey

1. Is the current economic situation impacting your district's day-to-day operations?

2. Is the current economic situation impacting the size of your substitute pool?

3. Is the current economic situation impacting professional development activities for teachers?

4. Do you think the new president will be able to improve education in a meaningful way?

For More Information

For more information about this survey, or any of eSchool Solutions' products and services, please contact your account manager today.